Call for applications

Maupertuis research prize from the Schweizerische Hirnliga (Swiss Brain League)

In 2024, the Schweizerische Hirnliga will be awarding a prize in the amount of CHF 100,000 to a Swiss research group for outstanding scientific work in the field of brain research. The prize is given for the scientific achievement of a work group as a whole.

The prerequisite is that the research has been published as a single publication in the two years prior to the call for applications or has been accepted for publication by an internationally recognized journal. The research must also have been conducted primarily at Swiss clinics and/or institutions.

Applications are to be submitted electronically (Word or PDF format) along with the scientific publication and declaration of intent explaining how the prize money will be used, a brief CV with a list of publications for each researcher, and an informed consent declaration signed by the authors. Applications must be submitted via email (info@hirnliga.ch) by September 30, 2023.

The detailed prize rules can be found online at www.hirnliga.ch.
